Wreck Island homemakers hold meeting

Members of the Wreck Island Extension Homemakers Club met Wednesday, Jan. 23, at 10:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Marie Carson for a covered dish luncheon. Fifteen members and guests were present.

Mrs. Ruby Williamson, Appomattox County Chairman of Extension Homemaker Clubs, was welcomed as a guest.

Mrs. Dixie Staten, club president, led members in the "Homemakers Creed". Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and were approved and a treasurer's report was given.

Mrs. Staten gave reading certificates to members who had read five books during 1979 and distributed the 1980 Year Books, filling in meeting places for the year.

Mrs. Ruth Carson, Federation Goal chairman, presented an interesting reading from the Wall Street Journal, topic was "You Are The Finest".

"Fighting Depression and Coping With Stress and Loneliness" was the topic of the demonstration given by Mrs. Marie Carson.

A social hour followed when the hostess invited members and guests into the dining room to enjoy a covered dish luncheon. Mrs. Frances Dyess returned thanks for the meal.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 20 at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Ruth Carson.

150 attend 4-H awards banquet

Williamson, representing the Appomattox County Extension Homemakers. The Extension Homemakers have provided numerous scholarships to 4-H Camp and State 4-H Congress.

David Caldwell, President of Appomattox 4-H Teen Leaders, served as emcee for the banquet. Lisa Moore gave the invocation while Blair Smith and Ruby Smith recognized major 4-H sponsors in Appomattox County. Among these were Farmers National Bank who sponsors Public Speaking, Lawson Ford who sponsors the 4-H Dog Show, Appomattox Lions Club who sponsors scholarships to State 4-H Congress and American Federal Savings and Loan who sponsors Share-the-Fun.

Following a slide program on the proposed expansion of Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center, the banquet concluded with the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag led by Laurie McLean and the 4-H Pledge led by Cheryl Walton.
